

Fight Anymore- For All Seasons

(written by Jeff Luckey, Emily Hamilton, Jeff Pardo, & Ed Cash)

Verse 1

I say I won't, then I do
Can't let go, but I want to
Don't know what to try, don't know what to say
God I need to know there will be a day

Chorus

I won't have to fight anymore
These chains are gonna fall
The heavy hurt I've carried
Will be healed once and for all

When the struggle finally ends
When eternity begins
All my brokenness will be restored
I won't have to fight anymore

Verse 2

There's no secret thought You do not know
No place too dark that Your love won't go
I am not alone, You are on my side
And this battleground I will leave behind

Bridge

All my battles will be over
All my troubles will gone
Face to face with my Savior
Resting in His arms

He will wipe away my tears
He will take away my pain
My hope is in the promise
It won't always feel this way
