

Common Love - For All Seasons

(written by Jeff Luckey, Emily Hamilton, & Jason Ingram)

Intro

Ab Cm Bb x 2

Verse 1

Ab Cm Bb

You hold a million stars like sand in the clasp of Your hand

Ab Cm Bb

You send them wild across

Cutting ragged like daggers through ship sails

Ab Cm Bb

To think You know them by name

To think You told them their place

Ab Cm Bb

And that You would call me child

Chorus

Eb/G Ab Bb

It's almost too much, too much for me

Eb/G Ab Bb

To even think that I could be loved, be loved

By majesty

Verse 2

You scatter mountain frost like ashes in the weight of Your breath

You shout in lightning rods

Striking gashes like matches in the darkness

To think the thunder and rain

Can only move when You say And that You would call me child

Bridge

Ab Cm Eb

This love is no common love

Eb/G Bb Eb Cm

And no power can separate us
